

What is NES: Nutri Energetics System? A CUTTING EDGE APPROACH TO HEALING

To keep the body in good health is a duty, otherwise we shall not be able to keep our mind strong and clear.

Buddha

It's not often I come across something as exciting as the Nutri Energetics System (NES). As an intrepid explorer, always interested in cutting edge approaches to healing, my more practical, sceptical nature insists on finding out what really works. So what is NES?

You may or may not be familiar with explanations of the relationship between Quantum Physics, the body and mind. Perhaps you've heard that the body must have some kind of blueprint for healing. NES basically offers a way to measure the zero point Field of the body to discover where the blueprint for perfect health has developed distortions or glitches. Then the computer programme assesses which specific 'infoceutical' medicines could correct the faulty information in the body's Field.

NLP, Kinesiology, Osteopathy, Naturopathy, Homeopathy, Acupuncture and all forms of Medicine offer valid ways to assist healing. However, all of them presuppose and depend on the body's blueprint for perfect health to provide the pathway to healing. Unfortunately, when traumas, viruses, stress, or damaged DNA interfere with this blueprint, it may no longer be able to provide the right directions. The blueprint can be so severely limited that the body can't remember how to heal itself.

Just think of the 70 trillion cells that make up the body as being like different instruments in a large orchestra. In order to make good music, each one of those instruments has to play the right notes in the right sequence. All the cells in the body have to co-ordinate and communicate in elaborate sequences and timings in order to produce a healthy body. As a violin string vibrates, it creates sound waves. Similarly the atoms inside each cell vibrate, sending and receiving information via the zero point field. If the orchestra was digitally encoded onto a DVD, you could enjoy listening to it again and again via a DVD player - unless the DVD became damaged.

In a similar way, the NES device reads the body's zero point Field, and diagnoses which cells are playing out of tune. Just like an orchestra needs a conductor to co-ordinate and direct the music, the body also needs a hierarchy of information to direct all the activities of the cells. The brain, nervous system and hormones cannot do this job. The zero point Field of the body's blueprint supplies this essential coding. The NES infoceuticals have been uniquely designed to gently re-instruct the blueprint how to correct itself.

What does this mean? For the first time ever, there is now a way to work directly with the body's blueprint for perfect health. A new fangled wonder drug? No. Taking the infoceutical drops will not magically cure all your ailments. You still need to take your vitamins, go out and exercise, meditate, drink enough water, eat well and sleep! However, NES will greatly increase the effectiveness of every positive healing action you put into practice.

Of course, NLP has a great track record in being able to identify the deeper causes behind a healing issue. Emotions have an enormous impact on the body's blueprint. Hence, resolving those emotional issues often results in amazing healing. Now, coupled with NES, the healing effect of NLP can be even more profound.

How does it work? The best way to use NES, is to begin with a deep NLP exploration of your health and personal issues. This not only brings things up 'on display' but also gets past the superficial layers. If your conscious ideas about why you have contracted a certain problem were right, you would have fixed everything by now. NES infoceuticals also help to unearth the deeper layers of both the physical and emotional aspects. Working with both NLP and NES can greatly speed up the healing process.

Once the issue and the desired goal are clear, you place your hand on a small device that reads your entire energy field in about 15 seconds. The elaborate computer programme then evaluates the most important issues currently requiring 'information'. NES Infoceuticals are then prescribed accordingly.

Curious? Intrigued? Why not test it for yourself and find out if it will improve your energy, health or whatever conditions might be bothering you. Just give us a call or e-mail to book your session.

What we feel and think and are is to a great extent determined by the state of our ductless glands and viscera.
